Sheet 2

At least 12 emigrants named Wentz settled in Pennsylvania between 1731 and 1772 and probably many more at later dates. 3. The Crist homestead was in Buckwheat Valley, Perry County, Pennsylvania, and is now occupied by the Charles Ziegler family (104). 5. No Tiller are listed in Rupp's "Book of 30,000 Names" as being emigrants to Pennsylvania between 1721 and 1775 but there are several similar names including Tatweiler, Tietz, Tillinger, Disseler, Tristel, Tietz, Tetwelder, Tedweiler, Trouttle, and Tritzlen. 7, 8, 9, 10. Probably lived in Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Germany. 12, 27, 29. Came from Germany and 12, at least, settled first at Roaring Springs, Blair County, Pa. 12 must have lived at one time at Boiling Springs, Cumberland County, Pa. Fell off a load of hay at Lohan Run (Probably Perry or Cumberland County) Pa. in 1866. 17. Probably lived at least part of his life in Perry County, Pa. 29, 21. Lived in Germany. If they ever came to the United States, it was probably to Olean, Cattaraugus County, N.Y. 22, 23. Came from Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Germany, to lower Ontario (Perhaps Merlin) about 1848 or 1850. They moved to Peoria, Illinois, about 1858. They both died in or near Peoria. 23 was a farmer in Germany and in Ontario and may also have worked in the woods. At first he ran a sausage shop in Peoria but a few years later moved to an 80-acre farm near East Peoria where he lived the rest of his life. 24. Stayed in Germany. 25, 26. Also went to Canada. Thebes reported from various parts of the United States (Sawyer, Mich. and New Boston, Ill. for instance) may be descended from these two brothers. 27. Died at Bailey Springs, Pa. 31. Lived about a mile up the valley from Donnelly's Mills, Perry County, Pa. 33. Born at Boiling Springs, Cumberland County, Pa. and lived later in Perry County near Millerstown, Newport, and Donnelly's Mills. For 6 years about the time of the Civil War he worked for the Pennsylvania railroad, his run being from Altoona to Harrisburg. He had 7 or 8 acres of land near Donnelly's Mills. He worked in the timber, hauled tan bark and iron ore, etc. Probably buried in Markelsville cemetery, Perry County, Pa. but the grave is not marked. 34. Her obituary, published in "Bloomfield Times", Bloomfield, Perry County, Pa., says her maiden name was Vance (Lisland of Wentz) and that she was a Baptist. She was buried in Markelsville cemetery, but the grave is not marked. At the time of her death 75 lived at Middle Ridge, 87 at Lone Tree Iowa, 88 at Akron, Colorado, and 64 (also spelled Vance) at Markelsville. 38. Of Irish descent. Home north of Sheffield, Bureau County, Ill. 40, 41. Lived in Olean, N.Y. 42. Lived in Olean, N.Y., Lincoln, Neb., and probably many other places. 43. Came from Germany when 16 years old (about 1834), probably from near Berlin but possibly from Wurtemberg. He lived first at Olean, N.Y. from which place he served in the Civil War in Company G 154th New York Infantry. He was transferred twice, the second time by general order. He was a guard at Lincoln's castle after his assassination. He went to Peoria, Ill., soon after the war and was married there. During the 1880's and 1890's he had farms at Dorchester, Saline County, and Aurora, Hamilton County, Nebraska. In the late 1890's he went to a ranch at Akron, Colorado, and in 1906 to 2641 Stuart Street, Denver, Colorado, where he died. He is buried in Crown Hill Cemetery, west of Denver on 29th Street. His grave is marked with a stone placed there by the G.A.R. 44. Said to have come from Germany when 16 years old. Also buried in Crown Hill Cemetery but there is no marker for the grave. 45, 46. Live in Peoria, Ill. and have children and grandchildren. 48, 49. Live in California and have 2 children and 1 grandchild. 50, 51. Live in Hanna City, Ill. and have 5 children and several grandchildren. 52. Lives in California and has children and grandchildren. 54. There may have been one or more sons killed in the Civil War. 53, 58, 60. Lived in Harrisburg, Pa. 88 was their guest for Christmas Dinner when he was 8 or 9 years old. 56. A railroad man. 57. Was a switchman or other railroad man in Harrisburg, Pa. 64, 65. Probably lived in or near Perry County, Pa. 66, 67. Lived at Elkhart, Ind. 68, 69. Lived at Shickshinney, Luzerne County, Pa. where 69 was boss in a coal mine. 70. Served in Civil War in 107th Pa. Infantry, Troop L, W.S. and was at the battle of Gettysburg. In 1866-1869 he fought Indians in Nebraska and Kansas, being in the 2nd Cavalry. He lived at Roaring Springs, Boiling Springs, York, and Everhart (near Newport), all in Pa. 72. Lives in Pa. perhaps at Gallitzen. 73. Lives at Gallitzen, Pa. 75. Worked in timber and farmed when young. Stable boss for a silica brick plant at Mexico, Juniata County, Pa. in 1926. Later lived with 152 and 153 at New Kingstown, Cumberland County, Pa., where he probably died. 76. Dark hair and complexion. Probably lived with 152 and 153 in her latter years. 77. Worked for Zach Taylor at Sheffield, Bureau County, Ill. in 1881 and had been there for several years. Last heard from at Kewanee, Ill. Disappeared some time between 1890 and 1900. Rumored to have been in Virginia. 78. After 77 disappeared, she lived with 79 and 80 at Dorchester, Saline County, Nebraska, where her sons grew up.
